Dr F E Krenz
Office of the UNHCR

Dear Dr Krenz,

I am sure you are only too well aware of the appalling situation in Tajikistan where, as a result of the recent fighting, refugees are amassing on the Afghan border and trying to survive in the most terrible conditions. I have had this confirmed to me today in a meeting with one of the Muslim leaders from Tajikistan who is on a short visit to London. He says that there is an urgent need for food, clothing and medicines or many thousands will perish. We urge you to do whatever you can.

Wit best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Salem Azzam

Mr Pierre Sané
Amnesty International

Dear Mr Sané,

I have today met with a Muslim leader from Tajikistan who talked to me vividly about the recent fighting in that republic and the horrendous violations of human rights being committed by the authorities, affecting many thousands of innocent people. The plight of the refugees who have fled to the Afghan border with Tajikistan is heart-rending.

There have been reports of the situation in the press and my visitor confirmed and amplified these. May I urge you to do whatever you can, maybe sending observers to monitor and publicise these terrible happenings, to try to prevent further suffering and deaths in this region.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Salem Azzam
